

Figure 1. SiO₂ film thickness as a function of the number of cycles on growth (SiO₂) and non-growth (ZnO) areas. After every 110 selective ALD cycles, an etch-step is inserted to remove unwanted deposition on the non-growth area. The entire process is cycled to reach extreme selectivity.